smart fortwo voted the “Best Car 2014” in the Middle Kingdom

Chinese champion: smart fortwo

Stuttgart – The readers of the Chinese edition of the car magazine “auto motor & sport” have voted the smart fortwo the “best micro car 2014”.

This means that not only does the intelligent compact car top its category for the fifth time in a row – it also convinced Chinese readers with an overwhelming majority. 42.9 percent of votes went to the smart fortwo – considerably more than for any other vehicle.

The smart fortwo has established itself in China as a trendsetter for individual urban mobility. It combines responsible behaviour and high ecological standards with joie de vivre and a high fun factor. With its compact dimensions the two-seater takes up less road and parking space than any other car – an invaluable advantage in view of the traffic congestion in China.
